

2010 AAH CONFERENCE & BOOKFAIR

GLASGOW

15 – 17 APRIL 2010

Book online now to attend the
36th international AAH
Annual Conference.

This is the first un-themed AAH conference for many years and it has attracted a huge range of different responses to the call for sessions and papers, spanning art historical periods, geographies, discourses and media.

Visit the AAH website to find out more about fees and booking.

www.aah.org.uk/page/3232

Conference Booking deadline:
22 March 2010

SESSIONS, SPEAKERS AND RECEPTIONS

This year's three-day conference will host 33 Academic Sessions and 330 session papers, details of which can be found at www.aah.org.uk/page/3227

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Joseph Koerner,
'Hieronymus Bosch: Enemy Painting'.
17.30 – 18.30, Thursday 15 April,
Glasgow Cathedral

*Followed by a reception at
Glasgow City Chambers*

Jan Verwoert

17.30 – 18.30, Friday 16 April,
Western Infirmary Lecture Theatre,
University of Glasgow

*Followed by a reception at
Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum
(see image above)*

GLASGOW INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF ART WILL COINCIDE WITH THE CONFERENCE, giving AAH delegates even more cultural stimulation! See: www.glasgowinternational.org

Conference Activities and Visits

Delegates will be able to choose from a wide variety of different activities and sub-events taking place during the conference. These will start with a programme of visits on the afternoon of Thursday 15 April, after Registration. All activities will be free for delegates. For further information go to www.aah.org.uk/conference

VISIT A: GLASGOW CATHEDRAL

1. The Architecture of Glasgow Cathedral – tour by Robert Gibbs.
 2. The Archaeology of Glasgow Cathedral – tour by Steve Driscoll.
 3. Tour of the Necropolis – by Randal MacInnes.
- Booking required at registration. Limited places on coach. Free.

VISIT B: POLLOK HOUSE AND THE BURRELL COLLECTION

Pollok House and the The Burrell Collection, store tour.
Booking required at registration. Limited places on coach. Free.

VISIT C: GLASGOW MUSEUMS RESOURCE CENTRE

Glasgow Museums Resource Centre, Nitshill.
Booking required before registration. Limited places on coach. Free.

VISIT D: EXHIBITIONS AT THE HUNTERIAN ART GALLERY

1. Amber from Poland – introduction and tour by curator Neil Clark.
2. Artists Rooms: Joseph Beuys – introduction by curator Mungo Campbell.
3. James Paterson / Aspects of Scottish Art – tour by curator Anne Dulau-Beveridge. Own transport (walk). Free.

VISIT E: GLASGOW SCHOOL OF ART

Mackintosh Building Tour. Own transport (taxi / walk). Free.

We need to know numbers in advance, so please email coord@aah.org.uk with your name, conference booking reference and which visit you would like to go on (include the visit name in the subject title). Please email before 22 March 2010. Tickets for visits will be available at Registration.

Other AAH News and Events

Full reports on all AAH activities, and news of upcoming events, are available in Bulletin 103, which will be with you shortly. Here is an extra reminder of some of the upcoming deadlines.

Renew your Membership for 2010

Don't forget to renew your AAH membership online at www.aah.org.uk/membership

Concessions, from £20; Individuals from £45.

Annual membership is now rolling. So members get the most out of benefits and subscriptions.

AAH2011

37th AAH Annual Conference & Bookfair

University of Warwick

31 MARCH – 2 APRIL 2011

Call for Sessions

Visit www.aah.org.uk/page/3234 for more information.

Deadline: 23 April 2010

John Fleming Travel Award

This award of £2,000 is open to undergraduate and postgraduate students of the history of art, visual culture, and history of architecture enrolled in UK universities.

The award is offered in association with Laurence King Publishers.

For Guidelines and Application Form visit www.aah.org.uk/page/2879

Application deadline: 22 February 2010.

AAH History Research Project

Visit the new project webpage www.aah.org.uk/page/3242 to see how this fascinating project is progressing.

Members and non-members can now access new online archives.

- ◆ Online issues of *Bulletin, from 1975 – 2009. Search and download pdf copies.
- ◆ Online archive of Conference Programmes, from 1989 – 2009. Search and download pdf copies.

AAH Website: New and Improved

Recent developments and re-designs of the website have given it a great new look and even better functionality and resource potential. We hope that you will agree. Keep up to date with what's happening within and outside the AAH via the online News and Events page www.aah.org.uk/news

AAH Member Benefits

These include:

- ◆ Up to a 75% discount on subscriptions to AAH publications Art History and The Art Book (based on publishers price)
- ◆ Online access to AAH publications Art History and The Art Book
- ◆ Concessionary rates for many galleries, museums and exhibitions
- ◆ Reduced fees for AAH Annual Conference and Bookfair
- ◆ Members' groups and e-networks for: Students, School teachers, University & College academics, Independent art historians and Museum and Gallery professionals
- ◆ Members-only website area and improved online services
- ◆ Funding opportunities for students on internships
- ◆ Discounts on subscriptions to relevant journals and special offers on selected books, magazines and catalogues
- ◆ Listings for voluntary-work placement opportunities
- ◆ Awards, prizes and support schemes for various activities and events
- ◆ Online directory for freelance independent members
- ◆ AAH Bulletin and AAH e-Bulletin

Check details of membership benefits, including discounts and concessions, at www.aah.org.uk/membership